

Stephanie Caldera is a policy analyst with Oregon DEQ and serves as the agency's Environmental Justice Coordinator. In this role, she engages with DEQ staff, partner agencies and the public to ensure that DEQ is meeting its EJ obligations as it works to further its mission of being a leader in restoring, maintaining and enhancing the quality of Oregon's air, land and water.