

Linn Davis is an assistant general counsel for the Oregon State Bar and manages the bar's Client Assistance Office, which responds to public inquiries about lawyers and screens complaints about lawyers for referral to the bar's Disciplinary Counsel for further evaluation. As an assistant general counsel, he also takes calls on the bar's Ethics Helpline. Mr. Davis formerly worked as an assistant disciplinary counsel for the bar and as a prosecutor in the New York County District Attorney's Office.